	17/10/2003 Heard A.N. Bhakta for the petitioner. Shri P.S. Das, Panel Lawyer, takes notice on behalf of the respondents. By this petition under Article 226/227 of the Constitution of India, the petitioner seeks to challenge his transfer order dated 18/9/2003, by which he has been tranferred to his original place of posting at Narayanpur. The petitioner is working as Gram Sahayak (Village Assistant). Earlier he was working as Village Assistant in the Gram Panchayat of Narayanpur. When Gram Panchayat was declared as Nagar Panchayat in the month of July, 2003, the petitioner was transferred from Narayanpur to Gram Panchayat, Chhote Dongargarh and now after three months the petitioner has again been transferred to the Janpad Panchayat Office, Narayanpur.. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner may be allowed to make a representation to respondent no.2 to raise his grievances against his transfer. Having heard the learned counsel for the parties and having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, the request seems to be just, reasonable and fair. The petitioner is allowed to make a representation to respondent no.2 raising all his grievances within a period of ten days from today and in turn the respondent no.2 will decide the representation of the petitioner within a period of one month after considering all his grievances with an objective manner and with reasonings. With the aforesaid observtions, the writ petition stands disposed of.
